During 1889, 2,716 chests of opium were, it is said, boiled down by the farmer in Macao, of which 517 were for local consumption, and 2,109 for shipment to Anstralia, San Francisco and Vancouver. Naturally latelligent, the mosquito acquires at an early age an exhaustive knowledge of the anatomy of man, displaying an intimacy with the abote where the cuticle is thinnest, which does credit to mosquito methods of tuition.
